DAYTON, Ohio, December 5, 1974 --- The appointment of Mr. C. Robert Andrews to the position of Associate Director of the Research Institute of the University of Dayton was announced on December 2, 1974. As Associate Director, Mr. Andrews will be responsible for the overall direction, coordination, and development of the Institute's interdisciplinary research activities.

Mr. Andrews joined the staff of the Research Institute in 1952 and has served since then in various research and managerial capacities. His most recent assignment was as supervisor of the programs in materials research, which he has been instrumental in building to their present status as the largest research activity within the Institute.

The interdisciplinary research activities which now come under Mr. Andrews' direction currently include approximately 100 separate sponsored projects with annual value in excess of $5.5 million.

Mr. Andrews served in the U.S. Navy during WW II, and graduated from the University of Dayton in 1951 with a degree in Mechanical Engineering. He also holds the MBA degree, awarded by Xavier University in 1963. He and his wife Mary Alice and their family live at 1113 Larriwood Avenue in Kettering.
